TERROR TO AMERICA

Revolutionary Armenians Force Countrymen to Contribute.

MURDER NOT STOPPED AT

Society Called Hunchakist Does Not Stop At Murder To Force Contributions For Anti-Turkish Movements Being Worked Up By Certain Countrymen.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Acting District Attorney Smythe and an assistant are doing their best to probe deeply into the terroristic methods employed against wealthy Armenians to force them to contribute the anti-Turkish movement being worked up by certain countrymen.

That these revolutionists Armenians, who it appears constitute the society called Hunchakist, do not stop at murder was proven by the shooting to death on Monday of H. S. Tsvhanjian, the rich rug importer in Union square. Messrs. Smythe and Manley have had several Armenians, before them and expect to examine others today. Every witness so far questioned has besought the district attorney's office to keep his name and the fact of his presence in the official's office secret, so great is the fear among Armenians of the Hunchakist. Inquiry is therefore not a public one.

It has been learned that so bold has the Hunchakist become that when about an hour after the murder of Tsvhanjian threatening letters were mailed to at least half a dozen well to do Armenians. One such letter, it appears from the postmark, was mailed in the district bounded by Houston, 20th Streets, the East river and Fourth Avenue. District Attorney Smythe is sure that this letter was written by an accomplice of the man who killed Tsvhanjian. The recipient of the letter was A. Karajhian, a rug importer whose brothers have large business in Constantinople and Paris. All the letters announce the death of Tsvhanjian and threaten the others with the same fate unless they submit to the blackmail already demanded.

The rich Armenians here are in great fear of their lives. Conversant with eastern methods of justice, they do not understand why the district attorney does not throw into prison a number of Armenians whose names they have given the authorities.

Some of the threatened men are even said to be considering the project to raise a defense fund, hire a rival society and exterminate all the blackmailers and murderers. Others are much less aggressive and counsel yielding to the blackmailers for the time being and trusting to the district attorney's office to break up the system.

The rug importers business makes them an easier prey than they would otherwise because it obliges them to keep on friendly terms with the Turkish government and a result, hostile to the Armenian revolutionists.

HAS RESIGNED.

During Quarter of Century of Service Has Made Envious Record.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Andrew Mason, superintendent of the New York assay office, who has been in the service of the government for 50 years or more, has presented his resignation to Director of the Mint Roberts. He has forwarded it to President Roosevelt.

During a half century of service in the Philadelphia mint and in the New York assay office, Superintendent Mason has made an enviable record. Among his other services to the government was the invention of a new process for refining the precious metals, which resulted in the saving of large sums annually in the cost of operating the New York assay office. In recognition of his services Congress voted Mr. Mason a large bonus.

MINISTER BANKRUPT.

First Time in History of Petition in Bankruptcy by Minister.

NEW YORK, July 25.—For the first time in its history the bankruptcy branch of the United States District Court has before it a petition in bankruptcy signed by a minister. The petitioner is Edward Van Fradenburgh, a resident of Liberty, N. Y. In his petition he calls himself a "Retired minister." The total of the Rev. Van Fradenburgh fortune is $3247, and his assets amount to $2150. Many bankruptcy lawyers who say the schedule expressed doubt as to whether a retired minister's vocation brings him within the class of persons privileged to take advantage of the bankruptcy act, which provides for the bankruptcy of "Professional" persons.

AMERICAN ROBBED IN GENEVA.

NEW YORK, July 26.—A dispatch from Geneva, reports that an American of the name of Day, described as a wealthy Chicago financier, has been robbed of a pocket book containing $100,000 chiefly in notes, while traveling on an express train from Munich to Lusanne.
